

Position: Sailing Instructor

Job Type: Part Time (Seasonal)

Posting date: January 1, 2024

Closing date: January 30, 2024

Job Description:

The Sailing Instructor is responsible for the delivery of the Sailing Lessons at the RLWYC. Reporting to the Head of Sailing, the instructor provides input on the program, promotes RLWYC sailing and race program, provides instructions, organizes, and oversees the sailing facilities and services. The instructor works closely with the Club management and staff to provide excellent membership experiences.

- Part-time - full time positions are available. The number of hours worked each week will be variable, depending on experience both as a sailor and as an instructor; level of training achieved; and demand for lessons. Hours will be advised on a weekly basis.
- Instructors are responsible for course planning and daily instruction, both in-classroom and on the water. Most students are aged 7-16.
- Instructors are expected to participate in the Club Series Race program on a regular basis (minimum three regattas), either as a racer or as part of the race committee. Participation in the Richardson Regatta is strongly encouraged.
- Instructors are expected to promote the Sailing Program and help ensure classes are filled.

Target start: Thursday June 20th 2024

Target end: Aug 26th 2024

Salary range: $16-20/hour (depending on experience and qualifications)

Benefits:

- Great personal development opportunity – through leadership, communication, instructional development, event planning, social media and team building experiences
- Incredible work environment
- Competitive compensation (wages and performance bonus)
- Structured career mentoring
- Valuable resume experience

Preferred Skills:

- Minimum age requirement, sixteen.
- Instructors must have Sail Canada CANSail 1&2, preferred 3&4

- Certification, including PCOC, First Aid Certificate and Boat Safety course. The last two must be renewed every three years. International equivalents may be considered.
- Instructors must provide proof of their annual registration with Sail Canada, which will be reimbursed by the Club.
- Registration is necessary in order that instructors may hand out CANSail levels and are covered by Instructor personal liability and accident insurance.
- Experience working with, managing, and mentoring other instructors is desirable
- High level interpersonal skills and a demonstrated capacity to work in a team environment are essential
- Staff is responsible for own transportation to and from the club
- Must have a Social Insurance Number

About the RLWYC

The Royal Lake of the Woods Yacht Club (RLWYC), established in 1903, is a historic yacht club located on Yacht Club Island, Ontario, near Kenora on Lake of the Woods. As a part of the RLWYC team, you'll be contributing to a rich legacy of nautical excellence and community involvement in one of Canada's most scenic locations. The club is very active for the months of June, July and August, with various programs, activities and fundraisers, including sailing, tennis, swimming and kids programs.

Applications, along with cover letter, should be sent to jobsapply@rlwyc.ca.

We thank all applicants for their interest in this position.